Hi [REDACTED]

The old desk is 24 inches wide, quite tight in reference to the side tables, leaving 15 inches and pretty much the same in the back of the sofa, we could move the sofa closer to the TV, but again not ideal.

Let me know if you want to get this set up

Thanks

Warmest regards

Hey guys,

JE is wondering if it would work to put his old desk from the office which used to be in this corner back in this corner. That way we could get rid of the horse hair book shelf and the gray desk and just have his old L shape desk there. He said to make sure not to hurt the walls while trying to put the desk in to see if it will work. ;)

Thanks
