Jeffrey!... Thank You so much for your help, attention and care. I'm very sorry that I brought his problems to you.

There are no words to describe how I'm grateful to you. I know that it isn't your business but you help me and you find time to call, ask me, to make me feel better.

and it isn't only this story, you gave me opportunity to live another level of life, my apt, traveling, comfort, life opportunities and confident.. its all that I have cause of you!

I appreciate it very much and I'm very grateful to you. You are great! I would love to make an answer. please if there are anything that I can do for You, let me know. And I am always at your service.
